OUR VISION

Allecca Consulting provides compliance solutions to the affordable housing industry with compassion for the families we serve. Allecca consultants have a knack for turning complex problems faced by the affordable housing industry into solvable solutions by focusing on the regulations without losing sight of the needs of the families we serve. Allecca consultants are experts in the industry which includes RAD, PBV, HCV, and LIHTC compliance. We are compliance driven and people-centered.

OUR MISSION

Allecca Consulting is a management consulting firm focused on helping housing authorities and multi-family owners achieve high performance in the management of HUD and LIHTC programs. Allecca Consultants have the discipline and passion needed to be excellent financial stewards of the federal dollars entrusted to us and others. We are committed to prudent decision-making to preserve and protect the long-term assets of our clients. We stay abreast of changing industry trends and regulations to train, coach, and develop the next generation of housing professionals. We believe that diversity is a strength and essential to creating thriving affordable housing communities that include homeownership.
