GENERAL GUIDANCE AND DEFINITIONS

Section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (codified at 12 U.S.C. 1701u and implemented at 24 CFR Part 75, hereinafter, "Section 3"), as amended, requires that economic opportunities, most importantly employment, generated by certain U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD”) financial assistance shall be directed to low- and very low-income persons, particularly those who are recipients of government assistance for housing, or residents of the community in which the Federal assistance is spent.

Section 3 Worker means;

Any worker who currently fits or when hired within the past five years fit at least one of the following categories, as documented:

1. The worker's income for the previous or annualized calendar year is below the income limit established by HUD. (Note: Income is considered for the worker only and not based on household)
2. The worker is employed by a Section 3 business concern.
3. The worker is a YouthBuild participant.

A Targeted Section 3 worker for public housing financial assistance means a Section 3 worker who is:

1. A worker employed by a Section 3 business concern; or
2. A worker who currently fits or when hired fit at least one of the following categories, as documented within the past five years:
 - i. A resident of public housing or Section 8-assisted housing;
 - ii. A resident of other public housing projects or Section 8-assisted housing managed by the PHA that is providing the assistance; or
 - iii. A YouthBuild participant.

BENCHMARK GOALS

1. 25 percent or more of the total number of labor hours worked by all workers on the project employed with public housing financial assistance in MPHA's fiscal year are Section 3 Workers; and
2. 5 percent or more of the total number of labor hours worked by all workers on the project employed with public housing financial assistance in MPHA's fiscal year are Targeted Section 3 Workers.

HUD INCOME LIMITS

Low- and very low-income limits are defined in Section 3(b)(2) of the Housing Act of 1937 and are determined annually by HUD. These limits are typically established at 80 percent and 50 percent of the area median individual income. Most recent HUD income limits may be obtained from:

RECORDKEEPING: 24 CFR Part 75.31

Contractors, subcontractors and other recipients or sub-recipients must maintain documentation to ensure that workers meet the definition of a Section 3 Worker or Targeted Section 3 Worker as follows:

For a worker to qualify as a Section 3 worker, one of the following must be maintained:

1. A worker's self-certification that their income is below the income limit from the prior
2. calendar year;
3. A worker's self-certification of participation in a means-tested program such as public housing or Section 8-assisted housing;
4. Certification from a PHA, or the owner or property manager of project-based Section 8-assisted housing, or the administrator of tenant-based Section 8-assisted housing that the worker is a participant in one of their programs;
5. An employer's certification that the worker's income from that employer is below the income limit when based on an employer's calculation of what the worker's wage rate would translate to if annualized on a full-time basis; or
6. An employer's certification that the worker is employed by a Section 3 business concern.

For a worker to qualify as a Targeted Section 3 worker, under Public Housing Assistance Programs one of the following must be maintained:

1. A worker's self-certification of participation in public housing or Section 8-assisted housing programs;
2. Certification from a PHA, or the owner or property manager of project-based Section 8-assisted housing, or the administrator of tenant-based Section 8-assisted housing that the worker is a participant in one of their programs;
3. An employer's certification that the worker is employed by a Section 3 business concern; or
4. A worker's certification that the worker is a YouthBuild participant.
