Addendum #2

1. Question: My Supplier cannot get a hold of Grade A Rotary Cut White Birch Hollow Core as Specified, Is Grade A Rotary Cut Maple Hollow Core Doors an acceptable alternative?

Response: Yes. Any closed grain white hardwood that can be finished to match the specified trim & base will be acceptable. Our intent was to restore the unit as closely as possible to its original design.

Alternatively, in that white birch doors are not as plentiful as they once were, a painted finished would be acceptable, in which case all frames, base molding and trim would be painted as well.

It should also be noted, since the original door hardware was not present at the time of the walk-thru that the finish is to be bright brass, with the exception of the entry door hardware which is to be reused.
